Three Rivers College has established minimum and maximum course loads for full-time students during the fall or spring semester, summer session, and intersession periods. These course loads are based on the type of semester (fall or spring semester, summer session, or intersession) and each student's academic standing at the college.

Generally, full-time students are not permitted to be enrolled in courses beyond the number of credits that constitutes a maximum student course load for a semester, a summer session, or an intersession without prior approval by the chairperson of the department housing the student's program (or his/her designee).
