ADMISSIONS POLICY Three Rivers has an open-door admissions policy; welcoming applications for admission from any person who has a high school diploma, its equivalent, or is 18 years of age, and is able to benefit from a program may be admitted to Three Rivers as a curricular or non-curricular student. Three Rivers is an equal opportunity affirmative action institution and does not discriminate against any student on the basis of race, color, sex, religion, age, disability, national origin, or legal political affiliation or membership. The College evaluates special cases for acceptance.

Pursuant to Missouri State Statute 174.130, Three Rivers will not knowingly admit any aliens unlawfully present in the United States. Proof of legal residency may be required at the time of application.

Do you have a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities, such as seeing, hearing, speaking, walking, learning, working, etc.? YES NO Persons with a disability could qualify for accommodations and should contact the Student Success division for services available.

COMPUTER NETWORK/INTERNET ACCEPTABLE USE POLICY Three Rivers requires that all students, faculty and staff fully comply with the Computer Network and Internet Acceptable Use Policy regarding their use of college computer equipment, local and wide-area networks and Internet services. A copy of the complete policy can be found at www.trcc.edu. By signing this admission application, you agree to comply with the terms of this policy and agree to review this policy each semester and agree with any changes or revisions.

I understand that Three Rivers will release my enrollment information to the National Student Clearinghouse and federal and state agencies.

I hereby certify that, to the best of my knowledge, the preceding information is true and complete without evasion or misrepresentation. I understand that if it is later found to be otherwise, it is sufficient cause for rejection or dismissal.
