The Three Rivers College Board of Trustees recognizes that students are both citizens and members of the academic community. Students enjoy freedom of speech and assembly, freedom of the press, right to petition and the right of due process, subject to reasonable restriction. Upon enrolling at the college, each student assumes an obligation for conduct compatible with the college’s mission as an educational institution and for compliance with the laws enacted by the federal, state and local governments.

Missouri Statute 178.835 gives full authority to the governing body of each public community college, to adopt rules and regulations that enable the enforcement and power to discipline its students including but not limited to; the power of suspension and expulsion for any violation of such rules and regulations. If this Student Code of Conduct is violated or ignored by the student, the college must in the interest of fulfilling its mission, institute appropriate disciplinary action. Misconduct may result in a student being subject to formal disciplinary proceedings as outlined in Student Regulation 2620.
